

Dear Syd,

Thank You for the couch, the hospitality and time spent together. Jade was very kind to make dinner for us :- Yum!

I'm so glad the glasses finally got to You. They've been backordered since Christmas, but I went ahead and ordered them in the beginning of February to reach You by the middle of that month.

Bob is a wonderful driver and was both willing to drive all of the driving himself, and he seemed fine about my sleeping on the couch--the only concern being my not wearing a seat belt. I look forward to sending You pictures from the trip.

I Love You, too,
Krista
